GREAT BARRINGTON, Mass., Aug. 13.— Dwight Partridge, with a 73, took the gold medal from a strong field in the qualifying round of the annual invitation tournament of the Wyantenuck Golf Club, which opened to-day. A heavy wind made small secting difficult, as may be judged

GARDEN CITY, L. I., Aug. 13 .- Living ment of the game on this side of the Atlantic, John J. McDermott of Atlantic City, led the field at the end of the first thirty-six holes of the Metropolitan Golf Association open championship on the Salisbury links to-day. The national title holder returned two 71s for a total This led Jack Hobens of Englewood, the second man, by a margin of two strokes, while third on the list came Alec Smith of Wykagyl, whose card totalled

Although one swallow doesn't make a summer and much may happen ere the last putt has rattled in the cup at the end of the second thirty-six hole test to-morrow. he showing of the leader was sufficient to demonstrate once again the exceptional prowess of this homebred

When a master is on his game, well nigh flawless from the tee and through the green, besides dropping approaches dead, excellence becomes almost hum-drum. It is in lapses from deadliness and drum. It is in lapses from deadliness and the following recoveries that furnish fascination for the onlooker. So it was to-day at Salisbury. McDermott went sweeping along displaying an unruffled exterior even when he did occasionally stray into a bunker. Then the niblick would become the master club, and in looking back over his day's golf it cannot be said that the champion made a really poor shot either out of the sand or rough. In his long game McDermott's direction and distance were wonderful. direction and distance were wonderful, yet to partially discount this the homebred, especially in the morning round, developed quite a human tendency to slip up in shortish putts.

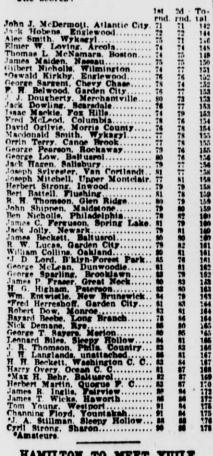

Scarcely less praiseworthy was the golf of Hobers who wen the metropolitan over of Hobens, who wen the metropolitan open at Baltusrol in 1908. Always long off the tee, approaching accurately and throwing little away on the greens, the native of Carnoustic rarely appeared to better ad-

Carelessness more than anything else prevented Alec Smith from being at least a stroke lower, for at the short fifteenth in the morning after missing an easy putt for a 3 he gave the ball an indifferent slap with the back of his putter with the usual result. "I'll make up for that later," said the Wykagyl man. And so he did, for his 75 was supplemented by a 71 in the afternoon.

Following Smith came two more homeom McNamara of Boston, winner of the M. G. A. title a year ago at Apawamis. Loving had a pair of 74s for 14s, while McNamara contributed rounds of 74 and 75, making a total of 14s. The chamon's early round was peculiar in that e came back in 32 after taking ten rokes more for the outward half. He got his putts down coming back. Oswald Kirkby of Englewood easily led the amateur brigade with two rounds of 76 for a total of 152. Fred Herreshoff never got going, nor did Max Behr, though in the afternoon Devereux Lord returned a creditable 76.

Old Rosebud showed all the dazzling speed which electrified the crowd on his first appearance here, but McCabe, who rode him, took winning advantage and simply gal-loped along in front, with the others strug-took winning advantage and simply gailloped along in front, with the others strugling hopelessly in the rear.

Although the handicapper figured that Gainer was the only one which had a possible chance to defeat the sfavorite, there was a peculiarity of the quoted odds
in that, though Gainer was held at 15 to 4 to win, 11 to 5 could be had about his obtaining the place. The friends of H. P.
Whitney's Black Broom were more conservative and their hearty support of the son of Broomstick-Black Venus was entirely devoted to his chances of getting second, so that only 2 to 1 was offered against Black Broom for the place, while the winning odds were five points more than those offered against Gainer.

The strenuous fight for second place and the indifference of Old Rosebud's rider allowed Black Broom to gain a length in the last furions, but the winner never was in danger and there is no knowing what Old Rosebud might have done if called on to show his best. Black Broom always had the pace of Pomette

a half, three lengths behind Old Rosebud.

When Enver Bey, the favorite, tired in the stretch there was a general closing up and Superintendent, which had been chasing the leader, took command. Northerner was on the outside and appeared to be in a position to make a winning run from there, but instead he worked to the inside and a general mixup ensued. There was a long discussion by the stewards after Wolfe made the protest before the numbers were changed and the race was given to Northerner. The summaries:

Youngster to Beat in Final.

Bratton Woods, N. H., Aug. 13.—As a result of to-day's semi-final round of the Bretton Woods golf championship L. A. Hamilton, Englewood, a former title holder, and J. W. Tulle, Royal, Montreal, the youngest player to qualify in the first flight, will come together. Hamilton was around in 77 and won by 3 and 2 over C. Smith, Ardsley, in a fine match.

A freak golf shot at the eleventh aided Hamilton when he missed his drive and his ball fell into the Ammonosuc River only to strike a lone rock and bounce onto the green. He nearly holed the putt for a 2 and gained a half in 3.

Yulle and H. W. Croft, Oakmont, were all square at the turn, but the latter gained a lead of 2 up by taking the first two holes of the inward tourney. With matters very much against him Yulle holed a 3 at the $50 yard sixteenth and a 4 at the 570 yard seventeenth and pulled out a victory. Yulle finished out the byehole and scored 78 for his round.

The thirty-six hole finals to-morrow in all three divisions should provide good competition. A. A. Wilson, New York, and T. J. Moran, Metacomet, are left for the second, and W. H. Felt, Tedesco, and O. B. Thomas, Englewood, remain for third flight honors.

The winner played a spectacular game from start to finish and kept the morning crowd intensely interested. Time and again he scored points by playing a stroke in the most difficult way possible when he could have obtained the same again. when he could have obtained the same result in a much more easy fashion. Throughout the match he directed his attack at the base line of his opponent and seemed to be able to score a point when he wanted it. In the second set Touchard loafed and reserved his strength for the final, while he forced Johnson to work hard by chasing him from one side of the court to the other.
